

CASSport

Literacy Link South Central
255 Horton Street, 3rd Floor
London, ON, N6B 1L1

Phone: 519-681-7307

E-mail: literacylink@bellnet.ca

www.llsc.on.ca

All websites links were accurate at the time of printing (July 2016)

Organizations are encouraged to copy this resource; however, reproducing this resource for a profit is prohibited.

Describe what it means to become an apprentice. Try to include as many of the following key words as you can in your definition:

post-secondary apprentice journeyperson hands-on on-the-job training earn while working

Are you ready to begin your apprenticeship? [] Yes! [] No

If not, what steps do you still need to take?

Your name: _____

The name of the apprenticeship you want to explore:

The following are some of the basic literacy skills that you'll need to achieve your apprenticeship goal. How are your skills in the following areas?

Table with 3 columns: Skill, good, could be better. Rows include: Read notes from supervisors about procedures, Read documents to find information, Complete forms and record information, Write notes to record key information, Create emails, send attachments, Research topics on the internet, Calculate and convert measurement, Compare costs from multiple sources (cost comparison), Manage time, Other: _____, Other: _____, Other: _____.

How many hours of on-the-job to do you need to complete this apprenticeship? _____

How many hours of in-school training do you need to complete this apprenticeship? _____

What do the following types of in-class training mean?

Block release: _____

Day release: _____

During in-class apprenticeship training and exams, can you access accommodations for disabilities if needed? Yes No

What is the minimum level of education you must have to enter into this apprenticeship?

What is the minimum level of education you must have to be hired by most employers in this trade?

Is there a difference between those requirements? Yes No

What is a Pre-Apprenticeship Training Program?

What is a Certificate of Apprenticeship?

If you get a Certification of Apprenticeship, are you guaranteed an apprenticeship? Yes No

How do you register as an apprentice? What steps do you need to take?

What is a Registered Training Agreement?

What is a Training Standard (logbook)?

Have you seen a copy of a Training Standard for the type of apprenticeship you're exploring? Yes No

What is a Certificate of Qualification (C of Q)?

What does the term “journeyman to apprentice ratio” refer to?

If there is a ratio that applies to the apprenticeship that interests you, what is it? _____

How much are apprentices paid, compared to a journeyman?

How do you know if a trade is in demand?

What does OCOT stand for? _____

What role does OCOT play in apprenticeship?

What is the role of the Ministry of Advanced Education and Skills Development (formerly known as the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities) in apprenticeship?

Find the fees for the following:

- $ _____ registering as an apprentice
- $ _____ writing your C of Q exam
- $ _____ membership to OCOT

What is a compulsory trade? _____

How many compulsory trades are there in Ontario? _____

What is a voluntary trade? _____

How many voluntary trades are there in Ontario? _____

What is a Red Seal trade? _____

How many Red Seal Trades are there? _____

Name one benefit to working in a Red Seal trade:

What is the role of the following two people in apprenticeship?

Journeyman: _____

Apprentice: _____

What are an apprentice's responsibilities? _____

What are a journeyman's responsibilities towards an apprentice?

How do you become a journeyman? _____

